

Forever Chemicals NO MORE!

Policy impact event featuring Hollywood film DARK WATERS in the presence of award-winning actor Mark Ruffalo, award-winning director Todd Haynes and real-life hero Robert Bilott.

WEDNESDAY 05/02/2020

13h00 – 15h00

Venue:

European Parliament, PHS, 5B001
Wiertzstraat/Rue Wiertz 60,
1047 Brussels

RSVP:

Guests with EU accreditation badges: sign up

Non-accredited guests: thomas@tfip.org

Please provide: first name, surname, passport number, nationality, date of birth and occupation.

You must bring your passport with you to the event.

DARK WATERS tells the shocking and heroic story of attorney Robert Bilott (Mark Ruffalo) inspired by a true story. He risked his career and his family to fight one of the world's largest corporations and help a community that was exposed to dangerous PFAS chemicals. 99% of people in the world are exposed to PFAS.

Watch the trailer here:

Hosted by MEPs Frederique Ries and Jutta Paulus.

Featuring 2 high-level panel discussions including representatives from the EU, business, and NGOs - to be announced soon - as well as exclusive clips from the film.

IN THEATERS FEBRUARY 26TH